

#BePartOfTheChange

energetica
PHOTOVOLTAIC INDUSTRIES

As an independent, international solar technology company, we develop, test and produce highly efficient photovoltaic modules, which through their reliability and sustainability make their contribution to the renewable energy generation of the future.

Become part of the motivated team at our new location in Liebenfels / Carinthia and bring us closer to our goal through your commitment and specialist knowledge.

For immediate entry we are looking for a highly motivated

Mechatronic engineer

Skills and responsibilities:

- Safety - You actively implement the procedures and procedures for safety at work in accordance with company policy and the work instructions for the tasks you are responsible for and report any deviations to your superiors.
- Maintenance - You carry out scheduled and preventive maintenance work on the production systems in accordance with the maintenance plans of the system suppliers in order to ensure high system availability
- Fault elimination - You eliminate faults in the electrical, mechanical, pneumatic and control system components and you develop a plan for eliminating recurring faults for reference and training purposes.
- Continuous improvement - You actively participate in the continuous process to improve the performance of the production systems, you reduce the maintenance costs, improve or extend the service life of the replacement components and check the maintenance tasks for relevance at regular intervals
- Training - You are ready to complete the learning and training process at the beginning for all production areas and, if necessary, to acquire knowledge of cross-sectional functions. You achieve personal training goals in a time period that is customary for the industry standard
- Attention - You convince with a high level of attention and concentration and are ready to work overtime if necessary within the statutory deadlines.

Your profile:

- Completion of a technical college or technical apprenticeship
- at least 2-3 years of experience in the production or manufacturing industry, preferably in the field of automation and fully automatic lines with integrated PLC and robotics systems,
- You have practical experience / very good skills in troubleshooting or troubleshooting in production plants, you can plan and install automatic controls to a certain extent, including PLC, PC-based and robotics systems
- You have practical experience in the implementation of improvement processes and in the installation of new production plants
- Practical experience with MES interface solutions, Ethernet / Profinet / Profibus communication
- Practical experience with visual inspection and dispensing systems.
- Willingness to work in shifts and willingness to work overtime
- Ability to start working in a challenging production environment
- High self-motivation, practically oriented and able to work in a team
- Dynamic and positive attitude to work
- Very good knowledge of German and English

Energetica Industries GmbH

Energieplatz 1 · A-9556 Liebenfels

Fon: +43 (0)4215 930 56 · Fax +43 (0)4215 930 56-222

office@energetica-pv.com · www.energetica-pv.com

#BePartOfTheChange

energetica
PHOTOVOLTAIC INDUSTRIES

Additional knowledge:

- Experience in start-up and start-up maintenance of complete automatic production lines
- Basic knowledge of TPM and RCM methods

Your advantages:

- You contribute to the success and growth of our company in an international environment
- Become part of an experienced team in a pleasant working atmosphere
- You can look forward to a diverse, varied field of activity
- You are ready for a permanent position in a sustainably operating company
- The minimum wage for a job as a production worker is EUR 2300 gross per month based on full-time employment with the willingness to overpay.

We look forward to your written application. Please send us your application documents to: v.prettner@energetica-pv.com. Your contact person: Mr Veit Prettner.